I understand there is a $25 rescheduling/administrative fee if the date has been agreed upon and the invoicing has been processed (sent to you via email).

I understand that Seniors will need a laptop for their journey for research, design and writing.

I understand that each Girl Scout will need to put in effort to meet the requirements of the journey to receive their award.

I understand that a troop leader needs to remain on campus during the journey. As a Girl Scout partner, Studio Bella follows the long-standing Girl Scout rule of at least two registered and approved volunteers be present at meetings (Studio Bella directors are trained and approved).

Please make sure to allow enough travelling time to get to the studio. We would love for your group to stay all day, but we have other groups that have scheduled a time too. For that reason, workshops begin at the time agreed upon and end on time.Thanks for your understanding!
